

Benefits are taxable

Medical, personal use of a car, room and board presumptuously put right back into your income easy come, easy go anticipated bonus for surpassing projections additional hours spent meeting objectives the more you give, the more you get unexpected windfall is bestowed upon you charities queue for your attention what goes around, comes around accumulation of great wealth making sure the less fortunate are remembered divine laws of reciprocity free to choose and manage your own destiny risk of failure, fear of success dynamics of attraction visible events are virtual realities spending means you have it spiritual payback

inner peace and balance fulfilling your sacred contract universal flow.
